SEWING THE T-SHIRT

Sew using elastic stitches when using elastic fabric.

1. Pin and sew one side of the sleeve ribbings to the sleeve hems, right sides together - stretching the ribbing as you sew. Fold the ribbing to the wrong side of the hem and stitch from the right side using a twin needle or a 3 step zig-zag stitch along the edge. Trim off any excess seam allowance on the wrong side.
2. Sew the shoulder seams, right sides together - using stay tape in the seam to prevent the seam from stretching. Sew the sleeves to the arm holes, right sides together. Sew the sleeve seams and the side seams in one stretch, right sides together. Sew the neckline ribbing centre back seam, right sides together. Press seam allowances open.
3. Pin and sew one side of the neckline ribbing to the neckline, stretching the ribbing as you sew, right sides together. Fold the neckline ribbing around the neckline and stitch from the right side using a twin needle or a 3 step zig-zag stitch along the edge. Trim off any excess seam allowance on the wrong side. Fold up and press a hem of 2 cm. Stitch 1.5 cm from the edge from the right side using a twin needle or a 3 step zig-zag stitch. Add any trims or prints to decorate the t-shirt.

TIP CREATE YOUR OWN STAY TAPE

Create your own stay tape with scraps of the t-shirt fabric. Cut two 1 cm wide pieces the length of the shoulder seam. Remember to cut them along the grain line so they don't stretch too much.

IDEA CONTRASTING STITCHING

Create a fun effect by stitching the hems and the edge stitching with a thread in a contrasting colour.
